Workshops and activities in Loppiano

From 2012 to today

One of the main characteristics of our activities is the joy that comes from sharing with others our commitment to build peace and promote a culture of encounter. For us every chance to welcome groups and individuals to our home base in Loppiano is considered a unique opportunity for dialogue.

Gen Verde’s audience varies widely: children, adolescents, young people, families, people of all professions and walks of life. This gives the group a unique opportunity for a lively exchange with many people from all over the world. The dialogue with young people in particular gives us an idea of the problems they face daily and the things most important to them. This is a constant source of inspiration for our creativity and for our choices in the kinds of activities we offer.

PROFESSIONAL FORMATION AND UPDATING

Visit to London for professional updating

October 12 - 21

The five members of Gen Verde’s artistic direction team spent 10 days in London in order to get an idea of the latest developments on the performing arts scene today with a special look at music and drama.

They worked with the actress Sarah Finch, who gave various lessons on the latest tendencies in the world of theatre and led a guided analysis of the five shows and concerts which the team was able to attend there. Through visits to the BBC, the English National Opera and the Globe Theatre guided by professionals who work in these places, they were also able to examine recent developments in the fields of sound, lighting, scenery and video. Upon their return to Italy the team gave a thorough presentation of their visit to the other members of Gen Verde.
